Antioch Readies For Christmas

G. S. Board Asks $394,000 Bond Issue

Board Wants to Build 17-Room Plant Upon Oakland School Site

Referendum May Be Held in Late January to Speed Construction

The Antioch Community Consolidated Grade School board of education will propose to the voters of the district a bond issue of $394,000 to finance the construction of a new K-8 school building.

Date of the referendum is not yet decided, but an effort will be made to hold it late in January.

"Should the voters approve the issue the contract for construction could be let in early spring and part of the building could be in use by the opening of school next September," said Supt. Richard Whitacre.

The new building would be situated on 20 acres of land now owned by the district at the northwest corner of the intersection of Deep Lake Rd. and Millburn—Loon Lake Rd. where the one-room Oakland school is situated and is in use for an overflow class.

Antioch Soph-Frosch Finish Third Place in No. Chicago Tourney

Antioch won third place in the North Chicago Invitational tournament for freshman-sophomore teams last night when the Sequoits won from Libertyville in the consolation playoff 47 to 39.

The Sequoits lost to North Chicago Tuesday evening and that team played Ela-Vernon in the finals, North Chicago winning 51 to 36.

Antioch appeared on the way to the tournament championship. They routed Zion-Benton Monday evening 53 to 31.

Then in a nip and tuck battle they were downed by the North Chicago team Tuesday night 54 to 45.

Antioch led at the quarter 14 to 11, trailed by one point 23 to 22 at the half and were back on top at the end of the third quarter 37 to 36. They were unable to throttle Maurice Guinns and Wendell Hall of the Hawks in the final quarter, however, and North Chicago forged ahead.

The team greatly missed Behrens who has been moved up to the varsity and was ineligible to play. He has been the play maker all season.

Other tournament scores were Grant 36, Waukegan 33; Zion-Benton 57, Grayslake 31; Ela-Vernon 43, Waukegan 33; Libertyville 31, Grant 29; North Chicago 61, Grayslake 25.

Two of the Sequoits received high scoring honors for the tourney, with Leroy Gallagher scoring a total of 43 points for high point man of the tournament, and Jim Olschlager took third honors with 39.

"When we get the distribution desks and cases we will know for sure that the new service is coming," Kufalk said.

Lee R. Lewis, a commercial artist employed in Highland Park, was elected Lindenhurst's first mayor.

His vote was 87 in contrast to Lowell Graves, 83, Carl M. Larson, 81, and Fred Beller 17.

The counting of the votes was an exciting task for the judges as the lead swung back and forth between the three top contenders.

Two hundred and sixty-nine ballots were cast, excluding one spoiled ballot. The potential vote was 317. Elected as clerk was Mrs. Helen Hay, who received 127 votes to 96 for Mrs. May Belle Hunt, and 41 for Mrs. Jean O. Beller.

Broken Water Line Floods Active Spec. Company Plant Wed.

A broken overhead water main, a part of the heating system, caused flooding of Active Specialty Co. plant Wednesday night, causing extensive damage to stock and finished merchandise manufactured by the company.

It was thought that the water failed to keep pressure within the system to the normal thirty pounds per square inch and allowed the full pressure of the Antioch water plant to enter the heating system. Since the plant is located on Broadway between Lake and Orchard streets, directly opposite the water tower, the city pressure is higher there than at any other point in the village.

The damage was discovered this (Thursday) morning and a crew of workmen is on the job making repairs. A part of the manufacturing operation was closed down today, but it is believed that the plant will be back in full operation tomorrow.

Scouts Beat McHenry; Lose to Elgin Here By Score of 76 to 63

(By Nick Ryan)
The Antioch Scouts defeated McHenry on the losers home court Sunday night by a 61-55 score. The Scouts, however, were unable to repeat the story Monday night as they bowed to a strong, fast Elgin team, 76-63, at Antioch.

In the McHenry game the Scouts took an early lead and remained in front throughout the game. The score at the end of the first quarter was 14-8. The Scouts moved to a 7 point edge at the half with a 28-21 score. The third period found the host McHenry team gaining one point on the Scouts, but the Antioch team still led, 47-41. The fourth period was played to a 14-all deadlock and the game ended with the Scouts on top 61-55.

The game was played without Larry Lass and Chuck Davis, two of the Scouts more capable rebounders. The high point man in the contest was Hiller of McHenry with 17 points.

Bill Baird again did a fine job of rebounding along with leading the Scouts in scoring with 16 points. Jerry Quilty and Frank Balistreri collected 12 and 9 points respectively while Al Reckers, Bob Weber, and Jack Palmer all played well in the closely contested battle.

It was the Scouts third win against 1 loss so far this season. The Scouts (continued on page 5)

Holiday Business is Greatest in History Of This Community

Post Office Mailings Set New Record in Stamp Sales Cancellations

With only three days of Christmas shopping left, Antioch and its surrounding area launched into that final rush which is characteristic of the season.

Antioch stores were all busy and indications are that this will be one of the best years from sales standpoint that the village has ever had. The village did not promote Christmas buying until well after Thanksgiving and as the result the trade has been steady, growing in intensity as the holiday approaches. There has been more buying at home as the shoppers found local stores carrying an excellent line of merchandise.

At Waukegan where a new shopping center was opened, there was a big lull in business last week which wasn't experienced here.

Antioch stores were open nights this week and parking space was well filled. The stores will continue to open until 9 p.m. the rest of the week, but will close at the regular time or earlier next Monday.

Post Office Rush Greater
As a barometer of business, the Antioch post office is having the biggest rush of business in history. Twelve extra persons are helping the nine regular employees in tending the mail.

"We never had a $1,000 adhesive stamp sale until Saturday and that (continued on page 4)

Sequoits to Play N. Chicago in Grant Tournament December 28

The Antioch Sequoits served notice to the Northwest Conference that it is still a contender for the championship title by winning from Ela Vernon there Friday 47 to 46, and Glenbrook here Saturday night, 84 to 58.

Tomorrow night they will go to Bensenville to play Fenton and then during the holidays will participate in the elimination-consolation tournament at Grant Community High School playing North Chicago in the first round the evening of Dec. 28.

The Sequoits are now tied with Palatine for second place with three conference victories and one defeat. While Grant leads the pack with four victories and no losses.

In the starting lineup Friday will be Lynn Bolton, 6' 2" senior reserve (continued on page 5)

Grass Lake Board Sets January 12 as Date of Referendum

The Grass Lake School Board of education has set January 12 as the date of a special referendum in which the district will vote on the proposal to issue $70,000 in bonds to provide an addition to the present school building.

Wayne B. Baker, president of the board, said that a public meeting will be held in the school at 8:30 p.m. January 9 to give voters opportunity to ask questions about the bond issue.

Previous to that date a letter will be mailed to the voters containing a sketch of the tentative plans for enlargement of the school.

The new seven-man board has been studying the needs of the school since it was organized on June 12. The previous board, of three members held a referendum but it was defeated on the basis that the favorable vote was not more than half of the votes cast which took into consideration spoiled ballots.

The new addition would have four classrooms and an English-type basement which could be used as an assembly room and cafeteria.

WHERE LABOR AND INDUSTRY AGREE

Industry and organized labor seem to take an attitude in common toward the federal income tax as now constituted—they both regard it as discriminatory and unfair.

Speakers at the recent National Tax Association Convention included a tax attorney giving the viewpoints of the National Association of Manufacturers and the chief researcher of the AFL-CIO. Both attacked the income tax in forthright terms. As was to be expected, their particular criticisms varied materially in nature. However, The Wall Street Journal reports, "Despite their divergent approach to the question, both speakers found common ground in their concern over the middle income taxpayer."

There is every reason for this concern. We have long since passed the point where the income tax was of real importance only to the well-to-do. Now the surtaxes start at so low an income level, and progress so swiftly, that the people of moderate means as well as large find it virtually confiscatory. The lower-income groups are hit hard too. The minimum tax, on only $2,000 of taxable income is 20 per cent and the surtax starts immediately thereafter.

It is widely said that the present world crisis will lead to even greater military spending by this country, and has destroyed whatever chance there was for income tax reductions in 1957. That may very well be true. But we also need, just as we need ultimate tax reduction, an overhaul of the whole chaotic tax system with its overlappings and other inequalities. The country would be well served by a united drive by labor and industry—whatever their differences over detail—to accomplish this.

THE ATOM AND SAFETY

Fears have been expressed that nuclear reactors, making possible the commercial production of electricity from the atom, may be excessively dangerous—that there are so many unanswered problems with which the scientists are still grappling that terrible explosions and other disasters might occur.

That has been discussed by the president of the Detroit Edison Company—one of the many utility companies now deeply engaged in peacetime atomic power development.

He told of the elaborate precautions that are being taken to make reactors safe. He pointed out that the insurance industry has agreed to undertake public liability insurance up to $60 million for any atomic facility licensed by the Atomic Energy Commission. Then he said: "The safety record in atomic establishments in the United States is extremely good. This is because the hazards which are involved are well understood, and appropriate operating procedures to prevent accidents have been carefully established and rigidly observed. We must move forward boldly to make the progress that is expected and required in the development of peaceful uses for the atom, but we will not do so at the expense of safety."

The AEC would never license, and enterprise would never build an unsafe plant. The fears should be laid to rest.

GETTING READY FOR CHRISTMAS

This year's Christmas retail sales are expected to be the greatest ever—more than seven per cent above last year, the U. S. Chamber of Commerce forecasts. And what it takes to get a store ready for Christmas has been described by John S. Tompkins in The Wall Street Journal. He writes: "It takes time (lots of it), money (lots of it) and, above all, people—from store presidents to floor walkers, buyers and sales clerks, carpenters and truck drivers, artists and artisans, celebrities and anybody. And it makes Santa Claus."

Mr. Tompkins' article has to do with a huge department store in New York City. But what he says is applicable, on a varying scale, to stores of all kinds and sizes in every community in this vast country.

To many a merchant, the extent of Christmas business determines whether he is to have a good, bad or indifferent year. All merchants must compete for the favor of a public which knows what it wants and is after the best deal possible. So all merchants must do their utmost to provide the stocks of goods, the courteous service, the attractive advertising, and the other inducements that bring people into the store and cause them to buy.

Then—also because of competition—they must operate at a very modest profit. This isn't just true of holiday trade. It's true every day in the year.

"GRASS ROOTS OPINION" FOR TWO WEEKS FOLLOWS:

MANTORVILLE, MINN., EXPRESS: "The reason you sometimes hear more 'news' on the street corner than you see in the newspaper is because the newspaper has to stand behind what it prints for all to read."

BOONE, IOWA, NEWS-REPUBLICAN: "Now the general election is over for another four years. And after a few days of rest the politicians will be back at work campaigning for the next."

SISSETON, S. D., COURIER: "William H. Pringle, national president of the Izaak Walton League, . . . maintains that potholes and wetlands are an asset to farming, and that farmers are piling up probable trouble in years ahead by too much drainage. 'A farmer who drains his surface water lowers the water table and loses the humidity in the air,' he said on a visit to Walton groups in Wisconsin. 'All he has to do is go out to Arizona to see what happens without surface water. Any piece of land that will hold water for three months of summer ought to be kept.'"

ALTOONA, PA., MIRROR: "It makes dismal reading that for the second successive year the Nobel peace prize committee meeting in Norway has been unable to find anyone worthy of its cherished award."

. . . In many corners of the earth leaders in varying walks of life are striving desperately to accomplish it. Despite their efforts, the Nobel committee had to say sadly: 'None of these will do.' And as the committee returns to the search for another year, the explosive events of Europe and the Middle East underscore their trials."

BUFFALO, MINN., WRIGHT COUNTY JOURNAL-PRESS: "When he was younger, admits Richard Mayer, Jr. of the North Vernon, (Ind.) Sun, his ambition was to write a book exposing women. 'But darn it,' he says, 'these designers of modern-day dresses beat us to it.'"

OKLAHOMA CITY, OKLA., CAPITOL HILL BEACON: "Federal funds are not 'free'—we have a pretty good idea as to where that money comes from. We send some to Washington every week."

LENNOX, S. D. INDEPENDENT: "Everytime we are notified of a mistake by the editor, and often told that there is no excuse—we are reminded of the man who has not made a mistake for four thousand years. He is a mummy in the British Museum."

REYNOLDSVILLE, PA., STAR: "There will always be the need for labor organizations. And more so, there will be the need for the assumption of economic responsibilities by the heads of labor."

GAS CITY, IND., MARION OBSERVER: "The wages of American workers are at an alltime high—measured both by the total national payroll and by the average paycheck. American workers get more of the good things of life, in return for less labor, than do the workers of any other country. . . . Never in history and nowhere else on earth have the financial fruits of enterprise been so widely or so fairly shared as in this country. And the capitalist system has done it."

BROOKNEAL, VA., UNION STAR: "President William Pollock of the Textile Workers Union complained just the other day that this union 'can't organize the South without government help. Under the Wagner Act we got it. Now we don't.' . . . That explains pretty clearly why the unions don't like the Taft-Hartley law or the labor policies of the Administration. They don't want a neutral Government. They are satisfied with nothing but having the full power of Government to compel people to do what the unions want them to do."

Monday 7 p.m. to 11 p.m., Tuesday, 7 p.m. to 11 p.m.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wirthboldt of Desplains will have as their guests for Christmas dinner the following: Mr. and Mrs. Frank Emerson and family, Mr. and Mrs. John Emerson and family, Mr. and Mrs. Palmer Garland and family, from Lake Villa and Desplains and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Owen and family from Merrinette, Wisconsin.

Mrs. John Gleason is a patient at the St. Theresa hospital.

In the State of Illinois, the 82,000 members in 931 American Legion Auxiliary Units, through their contributions, make possible the Christmas Gift Shop project. The Antioch unit No. 748 assisted this phase of the Rehabilitation program by a generous contribution. There are eighteen Christmas Gift Shops sponsored by the American Legion Auxiliary set up in the following hospitals: Kankakee, November 26th; Manteno, November 27th; North Riverside, November 29th; V. A. Research, November 30th; Danville, December 3rd and 4th; Peoria, December 5th; Jacksonville, December 6th; West Side, December 6th; Chicago T. B., December 6th; East Moline, December 6th; Oak Forest, December 10th; Downey, December 11th and 12th; Municipal T. B., December 11th, Dwight, December 13th; Marion, December 14th; Anna, Dec. 15th; Alton, December 17th; and Chester to set own date. The hospitalized men receiving $20.00 or less per month government compensation, may select without cost to him, carefully chosen gifts for the members of his family. Auxiliary members wrap the gifts with gay holiday paper and ribbon and mail them to his family with his personally signed Christmas cards enclosed. There is no organization identification on the package. As far as the family is concerned, the gifts are personal gifts from the veteran. Several members of the local Unit will assist with this Christmas Gift Shop program at Downey Hospital. Mrs. Carolyn Horan is Rehabilitation Chairman of the Unit.

Other Rehabilitation Programs

The following Rehabilitation projects sponsored by the Department of Illinois, American Legion Auxiliary, are also supported by Antioch Unit No. 748, according to Mrs. Horan, Rehabilitation Chairman of the Unit: Insulin and Vaponefrin Funds which enable needy veterans who suffer from diabetes and asthma, free medication, Treasure Chest, which regularly provides creature comforts to all hospitalized veterans in Illinois; Canteen Book Fund which periodically provides hospitalized veterans with a cash value book with which they may purchase items from the hospital canteen; Hospitality Fund, which makes possible a party a month in each hospital; Downey Nursery, where the children of veterans are cared for while the mother visits the veteran patient; Easter Gift Fund, provides a one dollar canteen book, or special gift at a time of the year when those in hospitals do not receive a great deal of attention. All of these phases of the American Legion Auxiliary's Rehabilitation program are made possible through the generous contributions of local Units throughout the state.

Veterans' Craft Exchange

Prominent in the Rehabilitation program of the American Legion Auxiliary is the maintenance of the Veterans' Craft Exchange, located at 30 West Washington St., on the seventh floor, Chicago. This unique enterprise is the only one of its kind in the United States and handicapped veterans from all over the nation send their hand made articles here for display and sale. Full price of the articles is returned to the veteran since the expense of shipping and handling, plus the overhead of the Exchange is borne by the 931 Units in Illinois, through donations to its upkeep and their sponsorship of the sale of these articles in their local communities. Antioch Unit No. 748 has Veterans Craft articles for sale at the home of Mrs. Pearl Anderson, Loon Lake, telephone 850. You will be helping some handicapped veteran to help himself. Over $76,000.00 was returned to veterans exhibiting their wares at the Veterans' Craft Exchange, last year.

Next Meeting

The next regular meeting of Antioch Unit will be after the holidays, on January 11, 1957 in the Legion Home.

Board Wants to Build...

To Complete Nine Rooms

Tentative plans prepared by Architect Gilbert A. Johnson call for completion of nine classrooms, a kindergarten, cafeteria and all-purpose room, nurse's, teachers' rooms, offices, and a shell for eight rooms which would be finished at a later date.

"We know we cannot get all of the 17 rooms completed on what money we have to spend," said Supt. Whitacre, but we feel that if our present needs are cared for, we can finish the eight rooms in the shell over the next two or three years on the tax revenue we will have coming in, and will not have to go to the voters again on this project. Growth of the district, however, may mean another building in another part of the district in years to come.

All-Purpose Room Small

Whitacre said that the all-purpose room will not be a gymnasium but it will be high enough for the children to shoot baskets in basketball and other phases of the physical education program can be carried out.

He said that the equipment will be of such nature that should the board ever decide to reduce the new building to a K-6 or (Kindergarten through 6th grade) in favor of a junior high school elsewhere, it will fit into the change.

Atty. Ted Larson, representing the board, will investigate the matter of a date for the election. The amount of the bond issue was based on an estimate of the architect.

Holiday Business is.....

I've never seen anything like it in Antioch," he said.

The Christmas mailing started a week ago Tuesday and reached a peak Monday when 35,000 pieces passed through the cancelling machine.

Rural carriers were moved to the Antioch Rescue Squad building where they are receiving and working their mail during the Christmas rush.

Kufalk said that as far back as October there has been a 15 per cent increase in business over the same period last year and that increase is carrying through Dec.

The postmaster said that not only are there more people in the community to send and receive mail, but people are mailing more.

"Antioch people certainly are co-operative and are helping us a lot by placing their cards together stampwise and in bundles for local or out of town delivery. Were it not for this thoughtfulness we would hardly get through," said Kufalk.

The Antioch news in this edition is publishing its greatest number of pages of a non-legal nature. Merchants are making their last offers of Christmas goods and many firms and individuals are taking opportunity to extend greetings to their friends and customers through this newspaper.

Engagement Announced

Miss Arleen Emilie Rudolph

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Rudolph have announced the engagement of their daughter Arleen Emilie, to Leslie Quirk of Bristol, Wisconsin, son of Mr. Earl Quirk, Sr. and Mrs. Harold Maleski. The wedding will take place February 23, 1957.

Mrs. G. D. Kennedy and Mrs. John Wagner decorated the fireplace mantel with flocked evergreens and candles, which gives the reading room a beautiful Christmas look. The Garden Section of the Antioch Woman's Club plans to make floral decoration at the library a regular club project. The Christmas decoration is their first venture and the compliments being received on their handwork fully justify their efforts.

Christmas Gift Shops

The month of December on the American Legion Auxiliary calendar of events spotlights the rehabilitation of disabled veterans throughout the entire nation, according to Mrs. Vera Horton President of Antioch Unit No. 748 of the American Legion Auxiliary. Although this is an unceasing Auxiliary activity, during the year, Christmas brings an opportunity for special remembrance as it is at this season of the year the hospitalized veteran is most in need of assurance that he is not forgotten and his sacrifice appreciated, because he cannot share the holi-

Report Covers Principal Hazards Of Winter Driving

CHICAGO—What's the lowdown on traction and stopping ability on snow and ice? Should motorists in snow-ice affected states throw away their tire chains and rely on snow tires? What are the reliable techniques for driving safely through the more dangerous winter months ahead?

These questions—and others which each winter cause public confusion due to conflicting claims, misinformation or just plain wishful thinking—are answered in a new research report by the National Safety Council. Entitled "Quit Your Skiddin'," the report is based on actual tests and studies by the Council's Committee on Winter Driving Hazards—a group of 22 experts embracing all fields of traffic and automotive safety. Their chief objective is to reduce the higher-than-average death and accident rates which prevail during the winter months. Their second objective is to reduce the numerous traffic tieups and costly delays due to slippery surfaces and impaired visibility. Professors Ralph A. Moyer, University of California, and A. H. Easton, University of Wisconsin, are co-chairmen of the Committee.

Their findings include the following recommendations:

1. Winterize your car and your driving techniques.
2. Have good tires; use tire chains.
3. Keep windshield and windows clear.
4. Adjust your speed to road and weather conditions.
5. Follow at a safe distance—well back of the vehicle ahead.
6. Pump your brakes when stopping.

Two States Have Most Oldsters

NEW YORK—Iowa and New Hampshire have the highest proportion of elders in their population. In both states, 11 per cent of the total population—about one person in nine—is 65 or older.

New Mexico and Arizona have the lowest proportion in the 65 or older bracket—New Mexico with 5.3 per cent, and Arizona with 5.8 per cent.

The proportion of 65 or older for the United States as a whole, is 8.6 per cent, or about one in twelve of the entire population. In 1900 only 4.1 per cent of all Americans were in this age group.

The proportion of older people has been increasing for more than a century, slowly at first and more rapidly in recent decades.

In numbers, those at age 65 and over increased from 3,100,000 in 1900 to 14,128,000 in 1955.

Science Doesn't Know All About Myopia

CHICAGO—There are some questions about myopia, or nearsightedness, which scientists are still unable to answer with certainty. But this visual error has been broken down into three broad varieties—the "ordinary" type, the "progressive" type, and the type which begins with middle age.

Ordinary nearsightedness attacks eyes that are otherwise normal, most often appearing in youngsters who are fond of reading, when they are between the ages of eight and 16. It's apt to advance during the growth period and to stabilize when adulthood is reached.

Progressive myopia always strikes sickly children, regardless of whether or not they like to read. It advances quickly and reaches a very high degree. Fortunately few people suffer from it, for it is accompanied by destructive processes and may lead to blindness.

Successful Business Often Gets Careless

LOS ANGELES—If your business is too successful, watch out!

This is the warning of Dr. Harold D. Koontz, a faculty member of the Graduate School of Business Administration at UCLA.

From his observations and service on boards of directors in five industries, Dr. Koontz has developed a theory of business competition which he calls the "theory of the aggressor."

In general, the theory's thesis is that: "Whenever any business becomes too stable, or comfortable, or profitable—there is always an aggressive so-and-so who will pop up to take advantage of the situation—either for his own or his company's benefit."

Color for Everywhere

NEW YORK—Modern homemakers are discovering that the work areas of the home need not be dim, dark or grim. Kitchens, for example, can be just as bright and cheerful as any other part of the home thanks to durable but colorful materials like ceramic tile, available in about 200 different shades and an infinite variety of shapes, sizes and textures.

Winter Formal Dance Queen and Court Among These Five

who during a final quarter performance turned in a terrific game scoring 16 points. He will team with Behrens at guard with Herbst playing center and Huml and Hanke forwards.

In the game at Northbrook Saturday the Sequoits showed just what they could do if an opponent lets its guard down. The game was fought on fairly even terms for the first half although Antioch led the Spartans at the quarter 16-9 and at the half 32-26.

It was in the third quarter that Antioch burst forth with coordinated efforts and speed that saw 31 points rung up in this period and 21 more in the final quarter for the one-side victory over Glenbrook.

Jerry Huml was top scorer for Antioch with 26 points with Bolton second, and Wayne Herbst and Dick Behrens both making 15.

Sequoits Beat Ela Bears

In a nip and tuck fray the Antioch Sequoits finished ahead of the Ela-Vernon Bears there Friday night 47 to 46. The Bears lead at the half time 30 to 39, and Antioch was ahead 39 to 38 going into the final quarter.

In the fourth quarter Ela-Vernon got ahead 46 to 45 and started to stall. They lost the ball, however, and after both teams missed a shot, Wayne Herbst, Antioch center, hit from the side, giving his team an advantage that held to the final gun.

Buciac was top scorer for the Bears with 18 points while Herbst was high man for the Sequoits.

to this point have averaged 70 points per game offensively while allowing the oppositions 67.7 points per game.

On Monday night the Scouts played host to The Elgin Connor Shales team and were obliged to take a 76-63 setback. This was not the same Elgin team that played the Scouts a week ago Monday night.

The Scouts played the game without the services of Bill Baird and out the lack of rebounding prowess was easily seen. The Scouts fell behind from the start and were never in front though they were able to tie the score early in the game.

S. W. Ames, 72, Pioneer of Lake Co. Dies, December 13

S. W. Ames, 72, Gurnee, died at 3:30 p.m. Thursday Dec. 13 at his home on Dilly Road, following a lingering illness. Mr. Ames was born August 30, 1884 in Warren Township where he had lived all of his life with the exception of six years spent in the Pikeville and Hickory Corners area. He was married to Gladys Stewart, December 27, 1910. He was a retired farmer, and was a member of Lake County Farm Bureau.

Survivors are his wife Gladys S. a daughter Mrs. Ruth Norwood of Gurnee, a brother-in-law Frank J. McCarthy of Zion and two grand children, Lynda Gail and Kent Stewart Norwood of Gurnee.

He was preceded in death by a sister Mrs. Ethel McCarthy, Aug. 20, 1956, as well as his parents Charles and Emma Ames, who were pioneer settlers of Lake County. Funeral services were held at 2:30 Saturday at the Strange Funeral home. The Rev. L. H. Messersmith of Millburn Congregational church officiated. Interment was in Millburn cemetery.

a 15 to 9 lead over the Scouts at the end of the first quarter. The Corner Shales team moved to a 34-24 halftime lead as they kept up a fast pace.

The Shales fast floor game offset the Scouts zone defense early in the game and the newly installed man to man defense were not able to slow them down. The end of the third period found The Scouts trailing by 15 points, 53-38. The Scouts started a long uphill battle midway through the final period. After being 21 points behind the Scouts were able to come within 11 points of the Shales but slipped back to loss by 13, 76-63.

The game's leading scorer was 23 points. Frank Balistreri led Scouts with 16 points which Al Reckers netted 15. Scoring was The Scouts big trouble as they missed badly from the foul line and their field goal percentage was low.

The Scouts, at present, have no more games for the remainder of the year. The Elgin Marions will play the Scouts at Antioch on Jan. 7 and Jan. 14. Both Casey and McHenry will also play The Scouts at Antioch at a later date.

Antioch Twp. Schools Start 2-Week Vacation Have Christmas Events

Antioch and surrounding schools today started a holiday vacation which will last until Wednesday, Jan. 2. This is the time recommended by the county school superintendent's office.

The Antioch Grade school had its program Wednesday afternoon which 350 parents attended. Pupils of grades one to three provided the program and the upper classes were guests. The latter will be hosts at the Spring Festival.

Today Christmas parties were held in the classroom with refreshments being served.

Antioch Township High School held its Christmas program this afternoon with the Rev. Howard Benson as the main speaker. The program was arranged by the Student Council.

Nearly all of the schools in the township had Christmas programs. Many were merely room celebrations.

It's time out for Christmas tree fire safety in the heart of the Christmas tree country near Missoula, Montana. Local Junior Fire Marshals Mark Borgerson, Barbara Barrick and John Barmeyer tie the "Yule Rule" fire prevention reminders to one of more than 150,000 Christmas trees distributed each year by William Coughner (standing), Elmore, Minnesota, nurseryman. Tags listing ways to protect Christmas trees against fire are being tied to Christmas trees from coast to coast by some 3,000,000 Junior Fire Marshals. The year-round Junior Fire Marshal program is sponsored as a public service by the Hartford Fire Insurance Company through local agents, schools and fire departments. The American Association of Nurserymen whose members produce a large part of 80 million Christmas trees sold each year in the United States is cooperating in the gigantic Christmas safety project.

Tax Facts

Both personal and real property taxes are subject to protest by any taxpayer who has legitimate cause for complaint.

Property taxes may be illegal because of an invalid tax rate; in the case of personal property taxes, the taxpayer may pay the entire amount under protest and accompany his payment with two copies of a written protest. The collector must receipt one copy of this protest and return it to the taxpayer; the other copy is retained for his file. Then the taxpayer must sue in county court within one year from the date of payment to recover the illegal portion of the tax, or he waives his right of recovery.

The statute relating to protesting real property taxes is applicable not only to illegal tax rates, but also to illegal assessments. First, the taxpayer must pay at least 75% of his real property tax under protest and file a notice of protest. Next, he must appear in county court in the next proceeding brought by the collector for judgement and order of sale of delinquent real property. There, he must specifically object to the taxes paid under protest; otherwise, he waives his objections. In real property tax protests the taxpayer states in general terms in the notice of protest his basis for objecting. He files duplicate copies of this notice with the collector. The collector stamps both copies to show the date of payment, keeps one copy for his files, and returns the other copy to the objector.

However, the written objections filed in the county court must be specific. Furthermore, they must be supported by the collector's receipt showing that at least 75% of all taxes, to which objection is made, have been paid under protest. To meet this requirement, the objector normally attaches to his written objections his tax receipt and his copy of the notice of protest. The burden is upon the taxpayer to prove that payment was made under protest or the court will not grant him any relief.

Frequent grounds for protest are: appropriations or levies are not properly itemized; amounts levied are in excess of requirements; levies for loss and cost of collections are excessive; rate extended by the County Clerk is wrongly computed or higher than maximum limits; levies were enacted at times other than prescribed by statute; valuation of taxpayer's property was excessive; and levy was extended without filing a proper certificate of levy.

Turkey Up Two Cents Per Pound

Uncle Sam's Christmas present to turkey lovers—higher prices. Turkey advanced over last month by a typical 2 cents per pound in the Chicago area, but still rates as a holiday poultry value at a cost below last year.

Government purchases begun before Thanksgiving had been slow to affect the market because of abnormally large numbers of birds produced. Record flocks on hand still serve to put the brakes on price advances, but results in a generally confused market pattern.

Some outlets are pegging the 39 cent to 49 cent Thanksgiving turkey to a range of 43 cent to 49 cent for Christmas. Stuffed turkeys quote 59 cents. More stores are adopting a uniform price structure for birds regardless of size, which makes large Toms the value buy on the basis of amount of actual meat per pound of purchase.

These turkey facts remain constant: There is no real difference in quality (taste or tenderness) of meat between large and small birds, or hens and Tom turkeys. Large Toms provide more meat than large hens. About one-half the total weight of turkey is meat.

The University of Illinois consumer service survey of wholesale-retail market activity for the week ending Dec. 22 shows additionally that: Other poultry meats remain unchanged. Top red meat values are found in beef and lamb, particularly for forequarter cuts. Pork is little changed, except ham is higher in most stores. Eggs continue to drop in price. Promotion of canned fruit, vegetables and coffee continue as an inventory reducing measure, since many buyers expect lower prices in January. Fresh produce lines are little changed. Vegetable fats and oils will be higher. Frozen foods, paced by orange concentrate as an indicator, are expected to go lower.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Arthur returned home recently after eight weeks spent with their son Robert and family in California.

Health Talk

The outlook today of a person suffering from apoplexy, commonly called "stroke," is brighter than ever before. Unless the stroke is very severe, causing extensive brain damage, today's victim can be rehabilitated to a self-sustaining state, independent of constant care, according to the Educational Committee of the Illinois Medical Society in HEALTH TALK.

Medically a stroke is a cerebral vascular accident. A blood vessel ruptures, producing a cerebral hemorrhage. The most common underlying cause is arteriosclerosis, or hardening of the arteries within the skull. This causes a narrowing and weakening of the blood vessel. If the narrowing is too marked, then blood flow is slowed down, resulting in inadequate nourishment to the brain. Then again the blood supply might be completely cut off by the formation of a thrombus or clot inside the vessel.

Strokes vary. They may be severe, resulting fatally, or they may be severe to the degree that the patient is unable to move and talk. The patient is helpless in that he cannot care for himself; he cannot speak because the communicating centers of the brain have been temporarily disconnected. For the latter patient, the outlook is more promising today, for with care and understanding he can be helped to normalcy and independence.

Strokes occur most often in persons beyond the age of fifty, although they can occur in a younger age group. But more advanced techniques are now available to help the person who incurs a stroke. Rehabilitation of the Stroke Victim Laboratory tests of the spinal fluid reveal information of great importance for diagnosis, as does the x-ray film, called angiogram or arteriogram, which certain material has been injected into the head through the neck artery.

Once the medical aid has been accomplished, the road back to independence must come from the patient's family. There must be understanding because of the personality changes so often encountered in a person suffering from a stroke.

A happy disposition is apt to become querulous. A neat person may become untidy and slovenly. In fact all characteristics are apt to undergo opposite transition.

Once over the "medical hill" as it were, and muscular function is gradually being restored, the patient should be encouraged to do things, even to paring vegetables when sitting in bed or on a chair; moving about slowly with the aid of a cane; talking even through the sounds are emitted much like gibberish. As more muscle function and coordination are restored, greater progress will be made in rehabilitation.

At first massage will help to maintain muscle tone, but later the patient should be encouraged to exercise the arms and the legs, even though lying in bed. Moving the fingers and toes, for example, while limited, will help to stimulate circulation.

Patience and understanding will do much to help the stroke victim back on the road to self-sufficiency. Many times your own back will ache from the many demands; your own disposition will be shattered by fatigue and impatience, but these will be temporary upsets. A sincere understanding of the patient's helplessness will do much to calm the troubled atmosphere.

Student Council of H. School Decorates Halls and Cafeteria

Once again the Student Council of the Antioch Township High School has been busy decorating its halls, display cases, and cafeteria with symbols of the Christmas season. Three large trees have been placed in the hallways.

At the last meeting of the Council, the students decided to donate one hundred dollars to Charity from their Council fund. They are to give five gifts of twenty-dollars each. From the list of names of institutions submitted by all students, a committee of five selected the following—Muscular Dystrophy, Care with Hungarian Relief designated as their choice, Union of Christian Churches Fresh Air Training Camp at Waukegan, Illinois, Lake County Retarded Children's program at Waukegan and St. Vincent's Orphanage at Chicago.

The Council asked for donations of canned goods from the Student Body, one can each from those who wished to contribute. It will be packed in boxes and sent to a needy family, the Lincoln Children's Home at Lincoln, Illinois and the Soldiers' and sailors' children's Home at Normal, Illinois. These choices also were made by a Student Committee from the Council.

Tremaris Hurt Sunday In Truck Crash on 83 South of Wilmot Road

The Antioch Rescue squad gave first aid treatment Sunday evening to Albert and William Tremaris of Antioch who were hurt in a two-truck collision on Rte. 83 south of Wilmot rd. in Wisconsin.

Albert, 24 suffered shock and cuts on his forehead, chin and nose, and William, 22 received a cut lip.

Francis A. Bohage, 35 Plymouth, Wis., the other driver, apparently was unhurt.

The Tremaris were riding south with Albert doing the driving, when Bohage turned right in front of them. Bohage said the Tremaris car struck the rear corner of his truck knocking it against a tree. The Tremaris truck landed in a ditch.

"Crusaders," Ingleside Youth Organization to Appear on WBKB 27th

The "Crusaders of Ingleside," youth organization, has been invited to participate on Ron Lear's "Breakfast Bandstand" program seen and heard over Channel 7, WBKB-TV, Chicago. The Ingleside youths will appear on the program on Thursday, December 27th.

The activities of the youth group have attracted much attention, and range throughout the entertainment and sports field.

October Sales Tax Income for Antioch Village Is $3834.45

Sales Tax figures released by Illinois State Division of Department Reports this week show that Antioch will receive $3,834.45 for October.

Fourteen new villages and cities have joined those who have invoked the one-half percent tax, and the total collected by all cities and villages for the month was $4,003,663.

Milk Price One Cent Lower Than November For Antioch Dairymen

Dairy farmers who shipped milk to the Chicago market during Nov. will be paid $3.86 per hundred pounds for Grade A milk testing 3.5 per cent butterfat and delivered to pool plants in the 70-mile zone.

Harry L. Edwards, Director of sales, Pure Milk Assn., made this announcement based on price information released by the Milk Market Administrator's Office in Chicago.

This price is one cent below the $3.87 paid last month and for Nov., 1955. It pays the farmer about eight and one-third cents per quart before deductions are made.

Chief reason for the one cent decrease from October, according to Edwards, is a somewhat lower total percentage used for Class I and II. This was only partially offset by a four-cent per hundred increase in the condensery pay price. This price is currently used as a basis for figuring the fluid milk price.

Total production for Nov. was 387,232,743 pounds, some 39.9 million pounds, or 12.21 per cent above November, 1955.

Sandra Waldweller Home

Sandra Waldweller, who was injured last July 4 at Fox Lake when she was struck by a train, is now home from Victory Memorial Hospital, Waukegan, and is walking through the aid of a support. A private open house is planned for tomorrow.

Pickus Is Disk Jockey

Helping put the Christmas spirit into the people downtown is the public address system with its carols and other holiday music. And the person who serves faithfully as the disk jockey is none other than Morris Pickus, local liquor merchant, who sees that the records are changed regularly. He has been doing this for years without any request for recognition.

A Christmas Gift For Everyone

Nothing makes such a warm impression, as a Christmas gift with a personal touch. Here's a suggestion for conveying your good wishes in a manner which is simple and inexpensive, yet attractive and useful. Place an old English style fruit cake from your grocer's ready-to-eat cake department on a small plate or tray and wrap for Christmas.

Give the fruit cake an even more festive appearance by topping with a sparkling glaze and repeating the luscious fruits found in the cake with an extra garnish on top. Dip the underside of the bright cherries and pineapple bits and nuts in heated light corn syrup and press pieces lightly into the glazed surface.

If you have several people on your Christmas list you'd like to remember in a small but thoughtful way, cut a fruit cake in halves or thirds and wrap a section on a smaller plate. To cut the cake easily, chill first and use a sharp knife. Wipe the blade with a damp cloth after each slice.

Safety Tips For The Holidays

With Mother spending extra hours in the kitchen cooking up holiday specials and Dad prowling through cellar and attic in search of Christmas decorations, accidents seem bound to happen in the coming weeks.

Each year, falls and burns alone bring tragedy instead of holiday cheer to thousands of American homes, and safety experts warn against common household hazards: shaky ladders, loose stair treads, frayed wires, and a whole variety of kitchen dangers that can cause serious burns.

With some 8,000 Americans dying every year of burns, first aid cabinets should be especially stocked to cope with this menace. When the burn is deep and widespread, of course, a doctor's care is essential. But when the burn is minor, self treatment is relatively easy, and can prevent future complications.

Doctors have discovered that the best remedy is that standby found in any first aid box or medicine chest—Vaseline petroleum jelly. Following the steps shown in the diagram below, the wise homemaker can promptly handle a minor accident, save needless pain, and keep the merriment going.

But most important, of course—be careful! Avoid burning—except for the Yule log!

Make Your Home A Safer Place

Among America's 17,000,000 children under six, according to national statistics, accidents cause more deaths than disease. Four out of five of these accidents occur in the home. And the pity of it is that most of these accidents could be prevented by a little more care and forethought on the part of parents.

One of the major causes of accidents among children is curiosity—the desire to explore abandoned furniture and refrigerators in cellars, garages and local dumps. Cabinet doors swollen with age and dampness often stick and doors on abandoned refrigerators, too heavy to push outward, can suffocate youngsters shut behind them. You can help prevent such accidents by removing the hinges and punching holes in such equipment before you store them or toss them out.

During the past ten years alone, over 110 children are known to have died because of mechanical suffocation. To help solve this problem, General Electric engineers have designed and brought out a new refrigerator with a magnetic safety door that even a very small child can push open from the inside.

Make a resolution to check around your home to eliminate all possible hazards. Keep all poisonous medicines in properly labeled containers—high out of the reach of toddlers' hands. Kerosene, varnishes and such liquids should be properly stored out of harm. When throwing away broken glass, china and razor blades, wrap them first, then dispose of them where the children can't get at them. When you discard old utensils, see that there are no jagged edges to cut or harm the child who picks them up to use as playthings. Teach your children the proper use of common tools and equipment; point out the dangers of sharp blades and unattended fires.

With such precautions, your home will be not only safer for the children, but easier on your nerves as well.

J-V's Beat Grayslake

The Junior Varsity of Antioch High school defeated the junior varsity of Grayslake Monday 65 to 56. Feron was high point man with 20 points and Sid Parker next with 16 points. Parker, who tore a cartilage in a knee in football just got into basketball two weeks ago is gradually gaining speed, but still hasn't the jumping power yet that he had. He turned in a good game despite his handicap.

Arranged to Pay for Damage

It was Bill Barnstable whose car skidded off the highway and ran through a fence on the Gilbert Haisma farm on Rte. 83 near Salem. The young rural Antioch resident arranged to pay damages. In the meantime since most of the Barnstable men are nicknamed Barney, as reported by last week's report of the accident "Barney" Barnstable employed at the lumber yards came in for some kidding by his acquaintances. He was innocent.

Wilmot Drama Rates "B"

Wilmot High School's drama students rated a "B" in their presentation of the Shakespearean play "Midsummer Night's Dream," at Madison, Wis. Saturday. They competed with the 12 other best drama departments in the state. In district and regional competition the presentation rated an "A".

Gennie Sanborn, 84, Former Resident of Antioch Dies in Chi.

She was a clerk in an Antioch store for many years before her illness.

Grade School Band, Chorus Present Fine Concert to Big Crowd

A large crowd attended the third annual winter concert given Sunday afternoon by the Antioch Grade School band and chorus.

The program included both Christmas selections and regular standard popular music, with George Olisar directing the band and Mrs. Margaret Aschenbrenner directing the chorus.

Solos were played by Jill Anderson, with the clarinet and Lance Keisler, with the trumpet.

The band appeared for the first time in its new uniforms, which were quite attractive. The uniforms were obtained through the efforts of the Band Parents Assn.

State Auto License Offices to Be Open on Holiday, Saturdays

Springfield, Ill., Dec. 13—Automobile Department units in both Springfield and Chicago handling over-the-counter sales of 1957 motor vehicle license plates will be open on the mornings of Saturday, Dec. 22, and Saturday, Dec. 29, Secretary of State Charles F. Carpenter said today.

Other departments in the Secretary of State's office, including drivers license examining stations, will be closed those two mornings as a part of the Christmas and New Year's holidays, Mr. Carpenter said.

The Springfield office of the Automobile Department will be open from 8:30 a.m. to noon those two Saturdays, and the Chicago office, from 8:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. Both offices will be closed on the Mondays following those two Saturdays.

The decision to keep the offices open was made for the convenience of persons who cannot take care of such matters on any day of the week but Saturday, Secretary Carpenter said.

Dial Phones for Wilmot, Trevor, Salem, Bristol

Dial phones are being installed in all the Wisconsin communities adjacent to Antioch this week. A great many other changes are also under way in the Southern Wisconsin telephone set-up.

The exchange at Wilmot is being abandoned and a new exchange will be set up at Silver Lake to handle the area. A new exchange at Salem will serve the territory formerly handled by Bristol and Wilmot.

Residents and businesses of Antioch, who conduct a large amount of business in the area, have found it almost impossible to reach persons within the area during the past week, due to the change being made.

It is said that the change-over will be complete by the first of January and normal service will be resumed.

Census to Survey Farm Wage Workers

Special questions on farm wage workers will be asked in the Dec. Current Population Survey, at the request of the U. S. Department of Agriculture, according to Supervisor, Guy A. Lutz of the Census Bureau's field office in Chicago, Ill. which will participate in the survey.

Information to be collected will cover days worked, earnings from farm and nonfarm work, number of different farms worked on during the year and how farm wage work was obtained. Migrant farm workers will be asked additional questions to determine how far from home these workers went to do farm work.

The farm work questions will be asked in addition to the regular monthly inquiries on employment. The Current Population Survey will be conducted locally and in 329 other sections of the country during the week of December 18.

Current Population Survey information will be collected locally by Mrs. Eleanor Whitney of Chicago, Illinois.

Don't Let Accidents Spoil Your Christmas

Don't risk seeing stars when you try to hang a star on the top of your Christmas tree.

This warning comes from the National Safety Council, because Christmas accidents contributed to the 14,000 deaths from home falls last year.

Use a sturdy stepladder, place it as close to the tree as possible, and be careful when you reach for the farthest branch.

The Council points out that the holiday season brings many fall hazards—placing decorations, toys underfoot, boxes and wrappings laid "temporarily" on stairs, slippery walks outside.

Another danger of the holiday season is fire.

"The Christmas tree, filled with natural pitch and resin, is one of the most combustible objects known," the Council says, "and it can burn so quickly it is almost impossible to extinguish the flames by ordinary methods. In case of fire, call the fire department immediately."

To help prevent Christmas tree fires, the Council offers eight simple precautions:

1. Buy a fresh tree. Be wary of trees sold as "fireproof." And don't attempt to flameproof Christmas trees with chemical solutions.
2. Keep your tree in a cold place until ready to use it. Before setting up the tree, saw off diagonally at least an inch of trunk and place base in water-containing holder. Keep water reservoir filled.
3. Locate tree well away from fireplace, radiators, television sets, powerful electric lights and other sources of heat.
4. Use only electric lights, and be sure they bear the Underwriter's Laboratories label. Check wires for defects and loose sockets before putting on tree.
5. Too many light circuits on one outlet may overload house wiring and blow a fuse. Reduce the load if this happens, or connect part to another circuit outlet. Never increase size of fuse, or substitute a penny for a blown fuse.
6. Be sure ends of metallic icicles or other decorations do not dangle into light sockets where they can cause a short circuit and flash fire.
7. Do not operate electric trains or other electrical toys, which may spark, under tree.
8. Take tree down when needles start to fall. Dispose of old trees in fire-safe areas outdoors—never in furnaces, stoves or fireplaces, because they burn with almost explosive violence.

Highway Hypnosis Is Blamed for Accidents

Highway hypnosis is the cause of an increasing number of accidents on superhighways, warns Chas. M. Hayes, president of the Chicago Motor Club.

"The best way to avoid drowsing at the wheel is to stop for a rest after the first hour of driving," said Hayes. "Most highway accidents occur during the first three hours of a trip. This clearly indicates the need for motorists to take an occasional break to alleviate the monotony that causes a driver to fall asleep at the wheel."

Here are some hints from the Motor Club for avoiding highway hypnosis:

Never eat a big meal or drink alcoholic beverages before or during a long trip.

Stop every hour, whether you feel drowsy or not. If possible, take a break for coffee, tea or a soft drink.

Don't focus your eyes steadily in one position. If the monotony of the highway affects your vision, distract yourself by running the windshield wiper for a few minutes.

Play your radio; change stations frequently but don't listen to soothing music; sing, whistle; carry on an imaginary conversation.

Keep the car well ventilated. Always keep one window partly open. But occasionally open a window wide; a good blast of wintry air will help to ward off drowsiness.

Play poker with license numbers on other cars; guess the color of the next car; wager on the exact speedometer mileage from one point to another; do anything that will stimulate your interest but not interfere with sensible driving.

Don't travel too long at the same speed; don't follow the same car too long. Chew gum; eat candy or a piece of fruit.

Get a good night's rest before a trip; keep comfortable while driving.

If nothing else works, pull off the road and take a nap.
